

PRESS CLIPPINGS – WEEK #14 (03/02 – 03/09)

TURKEY

BUSINESSES

- ICCI calls for focusing on tourism to improve economy (Daily Times)
- UK fails to roll over Japan and Turkey trade deals for 'no deal' Brexit (The Express)
- Turkey criticizes end to US preferential trade status (Seattle Times)
- Rising amount of women in Turkish boardrooms (Hurriyet)
- Analysis: Erdogan cannot ignore Trump's trade wars (Asia Times)

SECURITY

- Turkey, Russia starting patrols around Idlib (Hurriyet)
- Germany tightens travel advice on Turkey (Hurriyet)
- Turkey fights cyber-crimes with own capabilities (Hurriyet)
- Ankara keeps eye on Assad with no plans to leave Syria (Ahval)
- Turkey's S-400 decision in 10 questions (Anadolu Agency)

POLITICAL INSTABILITY

- Police attack feminist night march with pepper gas (Bianet)
- Erdoğan says Women's Day protestors disrespectful to Islam (Ahval)
- Turkey arrested 30,000 since failed coup, says interior minister (Ahval)
- Turkey's Erdoğan tells opposition leader she might find herself in prison (Ahval)

GOVERNMENT

- Turkish gov't vows to support women entrepreneurs (Hurriyet)
- Is Turkey's government taking jobs from students who protest? (Ahval)
- Analysis: Conservative debates in Turkey and Germany (Hurriyet)
- Analysis: Opposition destined to lose nationalism debate with AKP ahead of polls (Ahval)

ECONOMY

- Why is Turkish inflation out of control? (Jam News)
- Fear of Brexit disruption stalks Turkey-UK trade ties (Financial Times)
- Analysis: Will Trump's new trade measures affect the Turkish economy? (BBC)

BUSINESSES

- Ghost workers sap Tunisia's phosphate wealth (Reuters Africa)
- Tunisia starts to get past its tourism crisis behind (Reuters)
- New Chairman of the supervisory board of Tunisian Amen Bank (ilBoursa)
- Tunisian exports of olive oil fall 47% at the end of February (ilBoursa)
- Analysis: Mobile Connectivity in Emerging Economies (Pew Research Center)

SECURITY

- Tunisia's mysterious poison letters spark concern of new terror tactic (The National)

POLITICAL INSTABILITY

- Change in Algeria may spur overdue overhaul of economy (The National and BBC)
- Trouble ahead as Tunisia eyes elections in autumn (Euractiv)
- Educational deficit and lack of awareness (La Presse)
- Analysis: Access to water, unfair distribution (Inkyfada)
- Analysis: A participatory approach to rural development groups (La Presse)
- Analysis: From Fathers' Feminism to State Feminism (La Presse)

GOVERNMENT

- Tunisian health minister resigns over death of 11 newborns at public hospital (Middle East Online and Global Times)
- From past to present, al-Nahdah's journey in Tunisia (Daily Sabah)
- Tunisia sets dates for autumn elections (Aljazeera and The National)
- Mobile teams to get voters out for 2 big elections (Associated Press)

ECONOMY

- Tunisia's GDP per capita is lowest among Arab Maghreb countries (Asharq Al-Awsat)
- These are the 7 most powerful African countries on earth right now (Business Insider)
- Trade deficit widens by 11% in February to nearly 2.5 billion dinars (ilBoursa)
- The Tunis Stock Exchange ends the week in the red (ilBoursa)
- Islamic bank WIFAK Bank reflects upon its first two successful years of operation (ilBoursa)
- Analysis: The key indicators of Tunisia's economic crisis (ilBoursa)
- Analysis: Less and less accessible to the middle class (La Presse)